HOTEL ETIQUETTE

Here are a few things you can do to increase privileges rather than restrictions on dog owners:

- Tell the hotel ahead of time of arrival that you have a dog & how big it is. Make sure you let them know it is an obedience-trained dog.
- Tip the maid the first night. Leave her a note thanking her for a nice room.
- Don't groom or bathe your dog in your room.
- Carry your own Simple Solution or such to clean up any accidents & don't use hotel towels. Travel with your own paper towels.
- If you must leave the dog in the hotel, leave him crated. Leave your cell phone number or a number where you can be reached with the front desk while you're out.
- · Control barking. If your dog barks when you're gone, then don't leave him alone. Call out for your dinner instead.
- Take a sheet from home & put it over the bedspread if your dog will be on the bed.
- Don't let your dog urinate on the bushes & plantings. Go to an unlandscaped area if possible where it won't kill the plants.
- Pick up after your dog (& anyone else's) outside & deposit it in an OUTSIDE TRASH RECEPTACLE.
- If your dog damages something, tell the management up front & pay for your dog's actions.

It only takes ONE uncaring person to lock all of us out of a hotel. Show them that obedience people care about not only their dogs, but for others & their property as well.

ATTENTION EXHIBITORS

The Show Site will be available to exhibitors at 10:00 am to 8:00 pm Friday, April 5, 2013 & 7:00 am to 7:00 pm on Saturday & Sunday on a limited basis. Please call Trial Chairman for other arrangements.

Videotaping by individuals for their own personal use will be allowed outside show rings only. The show committees reserve the right to regulate placement of cameras to prevent interference with traffic flow and exhibiting of dogs.

Management, show-giving clubs or their subcontract labor are not responsible for the loss of, damage to, or death of any dog exhibited, or the possessions of any participant, whether the result of accident or any other cause. It is expressly understood that every dog at these shows is in the care, custody & control of its owner or handler during the entire time the dog is on the show premises.
